

StarBoard™ Interactive Software Highlights

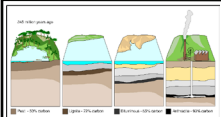

Share & Build Lessons

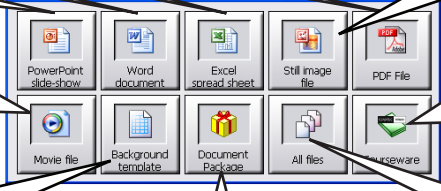

Present and annotate using MS Office documents or PDF files

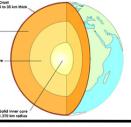

Import and annotate directly on video files

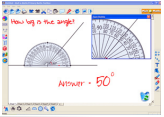

Choose educational backgrounds from the resource library or use your own

Package your presentations to share with others

Import images in a wide variety of formats

Load and run Cambridge-Hitachi educational software

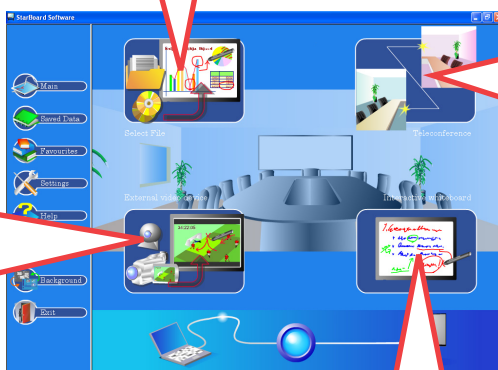

Browse your system for files to display

External Video Input

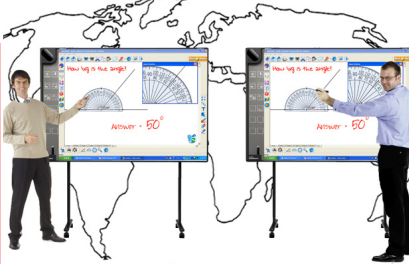

Write Over Video
Share and annotate on video and images from external devices

Distance Learning

New York London

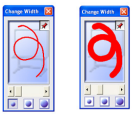

Conference Presentations

Interactive Whiteboard

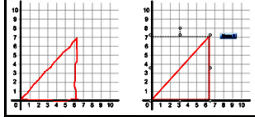

Write directly on any application, and choose from 72 different inks: standard colors, highlighters, 3D, and patterned inks

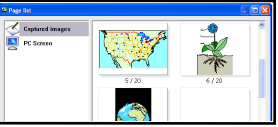

Easily adjust your line width to add impact to your lessons

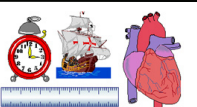

Use the Intelli-Pen to draw perfect geometric shapes that can be resized, colored, and shaped

View, print, save, and publish your lessons

Use lesson building images and clip art or import your own easily

Record your interactive lessons with voice for instant playback in Windows Media Player

